WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT?

Type

This product is a share of an investment company qualifying as an undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (SICAV).

Term

This product has no maturity date. However, the manufacturer may decide to close the product under certain circumstances.

Objectives

The Fund seeks to achieve capital appreciation by investing mainly in equities, equity related securities and debt securities of any type, issued by issuers (corporate or sovereign) domiciled, headquartered or exercising the predominant part of their economic activity in OECD countries. The Investment Manager may further elect to invest in inflation-linked securities, in order to hedge the inflation risk.

The investment strategy is based primarily in fixed income investments and secondarily in equity investments. To achieve its objective, the following rules will apply:

- convertible bonds will not represent more than 40% of the Fund's net assets;
- Investments in equities and equity related securities will normally not exceed 50% of the Fund's net assets.

The Fund may invest:

- up to 20% of its assets in contingent convertible bonds;
- in structured products, such as but not limited to notes, certificates or any other transferable securities whose returns are correlated with changes in, among others, an index selected (including indices on volatility, commodities, precious metals, etc.), currencies, exchange rates, transferable securities or a basket of transferable securities or an undertaking for collective investment. The Fund may also invest in structured products without embedded derivatives, correlated with changes in commodities (including precious metals) with cash settlement. The Fund can use financial derivative instruments for hedging and speculative purposes, which will be, most of the time, listed options, listed futures, contracts for difference, forward exchange contracts. The use of total return swaps and CDS is on opportunistic basis. The Fund may also hold up to 100% of its net assets in liquidities.

For hedging and for any other purposes, the Sub-Fund can use financial derivative instruments which will be, most of the time, listed options, listed futures, contracts for difference, forward exchange contracts.

The Fund is actively managed and it has no reference benchmark.

The Sub-Fund has been categorized as a financial product falling under the scope of article 8 of the SFDR.

For this share class, the manager applies a portfolio hedge that is intended to minimize the currency risk between the currency of the share class (which is in a non-base currency) and the base currency of the Fund.

Redemption and Dealing Shares of the Fund may be redeemed on demand, with dealing normally on a daily basis.

Distribution Policy This Share Class does not pay dividends. Earned income is retained in the NAV.

Intended retail investor

Investors who are seeking prudent balanced diversification, combining mainly the relative stability of the debts markets over the long term and the growth potential of a core equity strategy.

Practical information

Depositary The fund depositary is Caceis.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- in the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario,
- 10,000 USD is invested.

| Example Investment 10,000 USD | if you exit after 1 year | if you exit after 5 years(recommended holding period) |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------|---|
| Total Costs                   | 306 USD                  | 1,654 USD   |
| Annual cost impact*           | 3.1%                     | 3.2%  |

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be 6.2% before costs and 2.9% after costs.

Composition of costs

| One-off costs upon entry or exit                            |   | Annual cost impact if you exit after 1 year |
